

TO LEAD OR NOT TO LEAD? THAT IS THE QUESTION!

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE: SOCIOCRACY JUNE 4-6 2015

Sociocracy is a real-world-tested technology that radically changes the way we structure and lead organizations. Everyone has power. Everyone focuses on guiding lean and adapting to realize the vision. Everyone leads. What must these leaders know? Attend the international conference to explore this question!

JOIN THE CONFERENCE TO:

- Meet people experienced with sociocracy.
- Learn other practitioners' sociocracy training and consulting methods.
- Share your experiences and get feedback on your ideas.

AGENDA

1. June 4th - Visit a Sociocratic Organization (Rossinistraat 9, 5344 AK OSS)

Thursday afternoon, 14.00-17.00: visit 'Het Buitenschoolse Net,' a large, successful provider of after-school care. It is profitable in a sector where many similar organizations are struggling because of reduced government subsidies. Staff surveys indicate very high scores for employee involvement and satisfaction.

In the evening, 20.00-22.00, hear sociocratic consultant, Pieter van der Meche, explain how he implemented Sociocracy in Het Buitenschoolse Net.

Location: Kaap Doorn, a beautiful conference center at Doorn.

2. June 5th - Meet and Expert; Develop the Alliance Network (Kaap Doorn, conference center in the middle of The Netherlands, Postweg 9, 3941 KA Doorn – for your navigation system use: Leersumsestraatweg 4-6)

Henry Mentink, leader of (sociocratically organized) MyWheels, and co-leader of The Club of Budapest, will talk, 10.00-13.00, about his new initiative to develop the whole village of Varik as a sociocratic business, an experiment of the Club of Budapest. He will also discuss other initiatives and experiences with community building.

In the afternoon, 14.00-17.00, explore sociocracy as a way to govern broad sectors of society. Help develop strategies for using such concepts as movements, networks, network alliances, and collective impact to develop a new political system.

3. June 6th – To lead or not to lead, that is the question! (Develop Leadership Skills)

10.00-16.30, refreshments and networking 16.30-17.30. Location: Kaap Doorn, conference center.

With Sociocracy we change the power-over aspect of the traditional hierarchy so that we can all lead. What must sociocratic leaders know? Participate in answering this question for yourself and others using an open space format, which invites you to lead a session on topics of particular interest to you. Share results in the afternoon.
